Stylish Seating: Living by Samuelson Furniture

By Jena Tesse Fox | Nov 1, 2021

The Monroe chair has built-in ball casters for easy moving, while the Tilt by Samuelson mechanism lifts the seat up for easy cleaning. (Samuelson Furniture)

Samuelson Furniture's latest collection, Living by Samuelson, includes a variety of seating styles.

The Madison chair emphasizes functionality with pops of color.

The Douglass chair has a wood frame and waterfall legs to maximize comfort.

The Monroe chair has built-in ball casters for easy moving, while the Tilt by Samuelson mechanism lifts the seat up for easy cleaning.

The Sedona chair has a plush, supportive design along with the Sound by Samuelson Bluetooth technology that turns the chair itself into a speaker.

The patented Catch by Samuelson hardware—which holds personal items such as handbags or walkers—is available for installation on all Samuelson Furniture seating.
