

NEWH

The Hospitality Industry Network

SUMMER 2023

Trending Upward

Tarkett Hospitality continues to make bold statements

AFTER HOURS

Hospitality Social Events By:

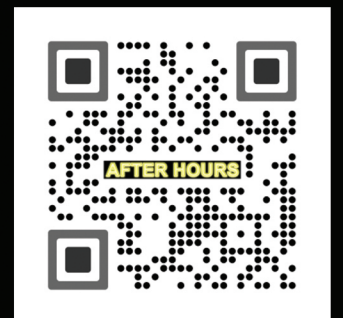

Samuelson
LEGENDARY FURNITURE

NH NOURISON
HOSPITALITY

Majestic

FOLLOW @AFTERHOURSHOSPITALITYOFFICIAL

AfterHoursHospitality.com

8. PierPoint announces that Joe Melusky, JM Sales Group, now represents the company in Louisiana, Arkansas, Tennessee, Kentucky, Alabama, Mississippi, and Cincinnati; Tammy Bergamini, Atelier, in Illinois, Indiana, and Michigan; and Valerie Davis, Davis Design Materials, in Nevada and Arizona.

9. Oriental Weavers Hospitality welcomes Jessica Wasmer Northover, representing its Axminster carpet and handtufted rug lines in Southern California and Arizona.

10. Debbie McKelvey has joined the Lily Jack team as VP of sales and marketing.

11. V Starr welcomes design assistant Gabi Favale.

12. Design Poole welcomes Rhonda Babins to its interior design team. Firm principal Trisha Poole recently participated in the Midpoint Critique at her alma mater, the University of Florida, where senior design students were challenged with delivering a unique guest experience at a historic property branded as a Marriott Autograph Collection hotel.

13. Vanessa Watts and Erika Dray have founded their New York-based interior design firm, Watts & Dray.

14. P/Kaufmann Contract welcomes Molly Frier to its growing West Coast sales team, representing Los Angeles County, and Kelly Gaddes representing San Francisco, the Bay Area, Northern California, and Hawaii.

15. Samuelson Furniture, alongside Nourison Hospitality and Majestic Mirror and Frame, introduces After Hours: gathering hospitality design professionals together in cities across the country to socialize in a laid-back environment.

