Madison Chair

Samuelson Furniture's Madison Chair is handcrafted with upscale design elements, defined by its distinctive shape with upper upholstery that accentuates the form and creates beautiful angles. The Madison Chair offers a comfortable seat for dining or lounging with heights and depths that have been engineered for ease of entry and exit with a recessed wooden base supporting tapered, splayed legs. The discreet TILT system allows the seat to tilt forward, exposing a drop-through frame that makes the chair easy to clean. There is also the option for a patented hardware system called CATCH by Samuelson that suspends a folded walker on the back of the chair, reducing clutter in common spaces and creating convenient access to personal belongings.
