revealing fresh, innovative designs that don't compromise on durability and comfort. CATCH by Samuelson was launched in tandem with Samuelson Furniture's first-ever senior living collection, Living by Samuelson—a unique furniture line handcrafted with upscale design elements that are aimed to enhance the lifestyle experiences of those in retirement communities. Many products in the collection are available with CATCH by Samuelson and are the result of extensive ergonomic research. The patented hardware system, along with the entire Living by Samuelson collection, is thoroughly tested and engineered to meet the needs of users.

CATCH by Samuelson completely transforms a chair's functionality, making it not only a great design piece for any space, but an accessible and practical solution for the inevitable “walker traffic” in common areas. The patented hardware proactively reduces clutter in shared spaces and provides users with easy access to their personal items when dining, socializing or relaxing. They do not have to struggle to reach their pocketbooks, jackets, or walkers from clutter greatly empowers users by further enhancing their independence. Additionally, it results in a safer environment by reducing the possibility of tripping and injury that might occur.

Thoughtfully designed, CATCH by Samuelson is unique in its practical yet impactful influence on the everyday lives of users—the design not only prioritizes comfort, but also how furniture can make positive contributions to the surrounding environment.
